3. Within the past few weeks several changes have been made in the positions held or duties performed by certain members of the Central Committee. These changes are as follows:
  4. As predicted in [REDACTED] Fernando G. Cortes has left his position as Director of the Communist Party newspaper, La Voz de Mexico. In addition to his position as Secretary of Rural Affairs, he now holds the position of Secretary of Workers' Affairs. The latter position was, until recently, held by Abel Cabrera. Cabrera was relieved of this position and is devoting himself to organizational work for the Alianza de Obreros y Campesinos de Mexico. This group is directed by Vidal Diaz Munoz who, in turn, received his instructions from Vicente Lombardo Toledano.
  5. The new director of La Voz de Mexico is Blas Manrique. According to the source, he will be relieved of his post as Secretary General of the Federal District Committee during the Fifth Ordinary Congress of the Federal District Committee, which will take place on 25-28 November. His successor, according to source, has not been selected.
  6. Manuel Terrazas, who recently replaced Ezequiel de la Cruz as Administrator of La Voz de Mexico, will continue to hold his position on the Central Committee as Secretary of Youth Affairs (Secretario Juvenil).
  7. Jesus Lazcano, who was formerly Secretary of Finance, has been named Secretary of Propaganda. The position of Secretary of Finance has been filled by Encarnacion Perez, who until the first week in October was Secretary General of the State Committee of Nuevo Leon.
  8. All of the above changes were made by the Political Bureau.
